23. Though I am working for last 11 months and almost 100 cases are disposed off every month, even if there are certain concepts which have been cleared in my mind.
24. Very good.
25. It was very good experience.

1. Respondent did not comment
2. 1. Sessions should start at 9.30 AM instead of 9.00 AM; 2. More Senior Advocates from Hon’ble Supreme Court should be invited as Resource Persons; Sitting Judges may come and attend the sessions so as to make more effective and meaningful.
3. Please call more Labour law experts like Prof. BT Kaul.
4. More resource persons who are experts in their respective field should be called. 2. The sessions should be more interactive; 3. More study material should be supplied in advance.
5. Prior sending the case material to the participants’ thorough mail.
6. Every year arrange Labour Law programme for Labour judges and IT judges.
7. More written material should be given and at time of their programme Cultural programme also held.
8. No
9. If the panel comprise personality like Justice K. Chandru and Prof. BT Kaul.
10. By organizing more seminars/trainings sessions on labour laws NJA may serve better.
11. Conducting similar seminars by including some more topics will make the programme more effective.
12. Now a days, it is necessary to call for lecture by Hon High Court of various states and also by Hon’ble Supreme Court of India.
13. Nil
14. Training programme start up : 10.00 am to 5.00pm
15. i. A trade Union representative for workmen could be called to understand his wish from the Court; ii. There could be a direct debate between Management representatives and Trade Union.
16. Some more topics may be included in programme.
| Any other suggestion | 1. I was not told about the time, when the last session is over. As a result, I had to get my air-ticket reserved at 9.30 pm, I could leave by flight of 3.30 pm.
2. Gym Facilities require to be improved forthwith; 2. At least 3 treadmill are required to be purchased; 3. Sauna and steam bath facilities need immediate attention and repairs.
3. Regarding Hospitality, it is my suggestion that in every room one electric water boiler should be there for hot water. Shoe polish and shoe shiner should be kept in room for well-polished shoes.
4. Nil
