Session-16; Stress Management. 11. Stress management. 12. None. 13. Session-16; Stress Management. Because not much useful from work point of view. 14. All the programme and sessions were very useful, however, the session on law of precedents i.e. Session-17; Law of Precedents. Could have been excluded from the course. 15. None. 16. Discussing on judicial methods was monotonous. 17. Law of precedents, it was more theoretical. 18. Stress management as not represented in good manner.

	19. Law of precedents by Hon'ble Justice Sampath. 20. Session-13; Role of Courts in Securing Gender Justice. 21. No such session but if had to choose than session on Environmental Law as judiciary has little role to play. 22. None. 23. None. 24. Discussion on environmental law as there is no practical applicability of the same by us, as of now. 25. Stress management, no specific reason. 26. Participant did not comment. 27. Participant did not comment. 28. No. 29. Session by Mr. V. Balu, Advocate on cyber-crime and case. It was not practical and realistic 30. Nil. 31. Impact of media on judicial decision as judicial officer is supposed to be not moved by surrounding. 32. All the session were useful and interesting 33. None. 34. Session-12; Environmental Law: Sustainable Development and Role of Courts 35. Environmental law - way of teaching not good. 36. Session-10; Break- out Group Discussion on the specified Theme. Was least useful as it is not helpful in our daily court work.
d. Kindly make any suggestions you may have on how NJA may serve you better and make its programmes more effective	1. Some local arrangement may be made for visiting local places. 2. Give one day for rest to participants to visit the other officers and local visit. 3. Few more sessions must be more interactive related to practical discussions. 4. Wifi may be provided to each guest rooms as poor connection in mobile phone. Dr. Prem Kumar Agarwal from WB. May be invited here. 5. There must be more interactive sessions. 6. There can be more group discussion and interactive sessions. 7. One session regarding practical problems of judicial officers of different parts can be kept in the schedule and some experts can sort out those problems. 8. If possible, invited, Dr. Harish Shethy, Mumbai, for the session of stress management. 9. Some of the session could have been more interactive dealing with the practical approach and not the theoretical part. 10. Training period is too long. 11. Programme may be shortened. 12. Such type of programmes are conducted more often and experienced Resource Persons be called.

	<ol style="list-style-type: none">13. Participant did not comment.14. The study material provided may be given in pen-drive or forwarded on our e-mail.15. Participant did not comment.16. Should have been more programs on stress management.17. NJA has made our stay and our experience truly memorable, but I do suggest it topics like Arms Act etc are discussed.18. By starting the session early in the morning as after lunch it is very difficult to concentrate and also by enhancing the food quality and providing travel facilities for the participants.19. Keep up the good work, I am proud to be associated with this institution. Satya Mev Jayate.20. Keep up the existing standard and quality education.21. Keep us updated by sending materials through E-mails and by setting up a help desk to resort to in case of facing practical problems in handling courts.22. The programme is already much effective containing major aspects of judicial system, NJA should have such programs regularly so that we can be benefitted by it.23. Everything was done well. Beautiful place and good place.24. If you could select topic which one more court room oriented.25. Course could be shortened.26. Participant did not comment.27. Participant did not comment.28. To give some concentration on civil side.29. Few more subject on civil side will help.30. Session discussing procedures in different states will be helpful. More group discussions on subject wise topics can be included. Exclusive training programs may be arranged.31. No suggestion.32. There could have been a session where the recent judgement of SC could have also been discussed.33. Exercise and group discussion sessions can be increased and the duration of the training session, should also be increased.34. To discuss practical difficulties faced by us in courts.35. 7 days programme is too long. Please reduce to 5 days.36. To give one day rest so that the participants may know each other by visiting local places.
