As we were able to compare the judicial system of Bangladesh and India. 8. Participant did not comment. 9. The session conducted by Justice Chavan and Justice K.C. Bhanu along with session on criminal law and Evidence Act along with the session conducted by Justice Ganguly and Justice Sunil Ambwani because the issues they discussed are mostly used in our day to day disposal. 10. Over all programme is useful for us. 11. All part. 12. Lectures and study tour. 13. Sharing of legal problems with the luminaries of Indian judiciary.

14. To have idea of Indian judiciary.
15. Judges role in the court is not of an umpire but active participant of social view.
16. Participant did not comment.
17. All parts.
18. Constitutional part.
19. Sessions on substantive and procedural laws were most useful since we will be able to use the relevant skill and knowledge in our day to day work.
20. To visit the AIIMS programme. It gives me the highest opportunity to know the forensic science.
21. To be acquainted with the resource persons with reference to their knowledge, skills, standard, and way of delivery, command in English language and overall on law.
22. Discussion on landmark judgments and identification of ratio in a precedent.
23. The programme has been designed in such a manner that this whole programme was very useful to me.
24. Forensic presentation at AIIMS: it will help us to conduct murder case as well as related cases.
25. Landmark judgments. Because those are compared with Bangladesh perspective also which is most effective.
26. Electronic evidence it is not yet introduced with our judiciary in such a way.
27. Electronic evidence because it is not acquainted with us in our country in such a way.
28. All the sessions I enjoyed.
29. Selecting highly qualified resource persons. Most of them had great experience in judicial work.
30. Group discussion.
31. Lectures on constitutional supremacy and medical Jurisprudence.
32. 1. Interactive Sessions; 2. Visits to the heritage sites and AIIMS.
33. Discussion on Indian Constitutional Law.
34. Exchange of views with the Hon'ble Resource Persons.
