Demonstration on E-filing: How it works

E-filing provides the facility for filing of cases through internet. NIC has designed user friendly program with interactive features. Advocate- on Record are provided with password for accessing the website of the Supreme Court, which is provided to them by the Registry. Also, in e-filing the prescribed court fee can be electronically transferred. Documents like vakalatnama and affidavits can be uploaded can be submitted by scanning them. Upon finally submission of the case, a reference number will be generated for further reference.

The session on e-filing is meant to facilitate the deliberation on practical aspect of e-filing and it includes the User Manual¹ of the Supreme Court of India for demonstrating e-filing.
