b. Which part of the	1. Helpful.
Programme did you find most useful and	2. Forensic medicine class and digitalization of judiciary.
why	3. Last parts of the programme I found most useful because all those are relevant.
	4. Forensic medicine.
	5. Participant did not comment.
	6. Sharing of knowledge.
	7. Interactive method of teaching and exchange of views.
	8. Every part of the programme is useful to enhance our skills.
	9. I think it is court and case management. I have become conversant with some new aspects that would help me a lot in dispensation of justice.
	10. Session 12: Forensic Evidence in Civil and Criminal Trials; DNA Profiling- It is useful to try murder or rape case.
	11. Resource persons are highly experienced and deliberations useful.
	12. Fair sessions trial is the most useful part as it is same everywhere; If fair sessions trial is not done, every step taken would be useless.
	13. Interactive sessions & study tour to AIIMS, Bhopal.
	14. Forensic evidence in trials because India has advanced a lot in this sector and we learned a lot from the deliberations with resource persons.
	15. Study tour to AIIMS, Bhopal.
	16. Indian constitutional arrangement and vision of justice.
	17. Proper use of time. Not a minute of time was misused by the authorities during the training programme.
	18. 1. Panel of discussions; 2. Interactive sessions.

22. NJA may kindly arrange some Bangladeshi food like fish, chicken, eggs.
23. Everything was well arranged and the programme is a great success; I have no suggestion but I wish all the success to this institution in future.
24. 1. Using more video clips; 2. Team work; 3. Personal presentation may be assigned to each participant.
25. To increase duration of study tour.
26. No comments.
27. I think NJA is giving maximum facility which a training institute can ever give.
28. The table of the resource persons should be higher than those of the participants.
29. The existing system may continue. I do not find anything to add.
30. The existing system is excellent and appreciable.
31. The period of training should be increased and more tours should be inserted.
