VIII. GENERAL SUGGESTIONS

1. Three most important learning achievements of this Programme	1. The entire programme was in the context of the recent development on the topics referring to the recent trends which enriched me in all respect. 2. 1. Scope and possibility of devising an integrated system of dispute resolution; 2. Viewpoints and perspectives of eminent experts in the fields; 3. In this globalized economy, all the topics covered are extremely relevant and the speakers in the session threw light on the practical realities in their respective fields.
2. Which part of the Programme did you find most useful and why	1. All were equally useful. 2. Session 4: Integrated System of Dispute Resolution: Commercial Courts, Arbitration &amp; Mediation – of the programme, since the topic it covered is of great relevance in the contemporary legal world, considering the growing inclination towards the dynamic concept of integrated system of dispute resolution.
3. Does the programme need further modulations or change	1. Topics involved such vast field that more time was required for the resource persons. 2. The programme was adept and enlightening in all respects.
4. Kindly make any suggestions you may have on how NJA may serve you better and make its programmes more effective	1. Nothing particular. 2. 1. The programme, if organized in a physical setting, subject to the safety mandates and other external factors prevalent, would allow for a heightened learning experience and a more interactive colloquy; 2. Programme for training judges so as to equip them to deal with subject specific disputes, requiring expert analysis and determination; 3. Programmes for creating greater awareness about forum suitability and subject-matter jurisdiction, so as to provide clearly demarcated pathways for effectual resolution of different categories of disputes.
