VIII. GENERAL SUGGESTIONS

1. Three most important learning achievements of this Programme	1. The module of the programme in its new form, starting with discussion rather than resource persons starting with his well doing presentative, in a welcome change. 2. 1. Understanding of the relevant provisions. 2. Useful interpretation. 3. Updated information. 4. As a judge one gets refreshed, interactions with the resource persons and other attending judges gave opportunity to exchange ideas; Further issues come to notice and discussed on the subject.
-----------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

	6. 1. Correct interpretation of law. 2. Up-to-date information. 3. Information about foreign award. 8. Understanding of execution of foreign awards. 2. Scope of Sec. 34 of arbitration Act. 1996. 3. Forum of appeals under commercial court Act. 9. 1. Bare Acts published should not be blindly relied upon. 2. Should be updated with latest case laws. 3. Challenges should be foreseen. 10. Good topics. Good division of time. Good resource persons. 11. How never dealt in the jurisdiction. All what was delivered & addressed was useful & beneficial. 12. Improved. 2. Clarity. 3. Better insight. 14. Re-visiting. Commercial law & IPR. 15. Subject matter clarity. Emerging trends in interpretation. Different points of view. 16. The interplay between the commercial courts Act and the Arbitration and conciliation Act is the useful learning.
2. Which part of the Programme did you find most useful and why	1. Helped us participate, to put forth our views and share out experiences. According to my view, this helped and enriched all of us. 2. Session 4: Arbitration Regime in India – Role of Courts and Session 5: Arbitration Regime in India - Enforcement of Arbitral Award. 4. The entire programme as all the sessions dealt with different aspects of commercial laws Act, interaction property law and arbitration law. 6. Session 4: Arbitration Regime in India – Role of Courts and Session 5: Arbitration Regime in India - Enforcement of Arbitral Award. 8. IPR. 9. The discussion of manner of exportability of foreign award. 10. All sessions were enriching. 11. All sessions were equally good. 14. AI in IPR and commercial court. 15. Interactive part (Where grey areas discussed). 16. Each topic.
3. Does the programme need further modulations or change	4. More contents for the commercial court appellate jurisdiction. 11. Programme was well designed. 14. More interaction should be good. 15. Participation of eminent academicians can be thought of.
